Re: 88-319

Dear Ms. McMahon:

Your letter requesting advice under the Political Reform Act was received on August 15, 1988 by the Fair Political Practices Commission. If you have any questions about your advice request, you may contact me directly at (916) 322-5662.

We try to answer all advice requests promptly. Therefore, unless your request poses particularly complex legal questions, or more information is needed, you should expect a response within 21 working days if your request seeks formal written advice. If more information is needed, the person assigned to prepare a response to your request will contact you shortly to advise you as to the information needed. If your request is for informal assistance, we will answer it as quickly as we can. (See Commission Regulation 18329 (2 Cal. Code of Regs. Sec. 18329).)

You also should be aware that your letter and our response are public records which may be disclosed to the public upon receipt of a proper request for disclosure.

Very truly yours,

Jeanne Pritchard

Dear Mr. Braaten-Moen,

We are in the process of compiling information for our 1988 edition of S&FA's Executive's Handbook on Political Contributions. This publication--updated three times a year--outlines the major provisions of each state's campaign contributions law, with an emphasis on contributions limitations/prohibitions and disclosure requirements for corporations, corporate political action committees, individuals, and labor unions.

I have enclosed a copy of the California entry. Please review the summary and check lists for accuracy and make any changes reflecting your current political contributions requirements. We would also appreciate receiving a copy of your current campaign finance law.

Mr. Braaten-Moen, please feel free to call us if you have a question or comment about the state entry. I have enclosed an addressed stamped envelope for your convenience in returning the updated materials.

Thank you for your efforts in assisting us with the 1988 edition of this publication.

Sincerely,
